Hunt Appoints Two Agents for its Deep-V Yachts Line

South Dartmouth, Massachusetts, USA -- Hunt Yachts, Inc., builders of semi-custom powerboats designed by C. Raymond Hunt Associates, has appointed agents for sales coverage in two important regions where Hunt deep-V yachts are especially popular. Prestige Yacht Sales of Stamford, Connecticut, will provide local contact for prospective buyers in western Connecticut, Long Island and New York City. Bollard Yachts in Oxford, Maryland, will be delivering similar services for Chesapeake Bay. Both will handle sales, commissioning and service for new Hunt Yacht owners.

Prestige Yacht Sales, celebrating 15 years in business, can provide a high level of sales services because of its talented staff, under principal Michael Frank: Tom Pilkington, David Dorrance, and Maureen Mazan all have extensive knowledge and experience in both power and sailing yachts. Prestige is located at Brewers Yacht Haven Marina, just one mile from I-95 and 35 miles from midtown Manhattan. In addition to Hunt Yachts, Prestige is the exclusive Northeast representative for X-Yachts from Denmark.

Bollard Yachts is a new firm, established by Todd T. Taylor after 10 years in new yacht and brokerage sales in other firms and a lengthy prior career as a professional captain (he holds a USCG 100-ton Masters license). Bollard is located at Campbell's Bachelor Point Marina in the oldest port of entry on Maryland's Eastern Shore, a harbor where every type of marine service is available.

Because Hunt builds primarily on a "bespoke" basis, most Hunt Yachts are crafted to personal order. While Hunt's two new agents have their own Hunt boats, they do not rely on selling from inventory. Because of this, Hunt Yachts recognized the need for agents with uncommonly extensive experience and boating knowledge, and is pleased to have brought both Prestige Yacht Sales and Bollard Yachts into their organization.
